DETAILED ACTION

1. This Office Action is in response to Applicant's request for consideration of IDS filed on 10/06/2006.
2. Claims 1-2, 4-11, 13-18, 21-24, 32-35 and 37-74 are allowed.
3. Claims 3, 12, 19-20 and 25-31 and 36 are canceled.

Allowable Subject Matter

4. The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter.
5. The IDS provides several references relevant to the pending application. In particular the IDS discloses Microsoft Active Directory implementation in Windows 2000 (David Chappel's "NT 5.0 in the Enterprise" is a discussion of Microsoft Active Directory), Novell's NDS (Microsoft Corporation, "Comparing Microsoft Active Directory to Novell's NDS") and files and directory replications (Weider et al., "LDAP Multi-Master Replication Protocol", LDAP, "Tim Scull "Technique for replicating distributed directory information", Neeman et al. U.S. Patent No. 5588147, etc).
6. However, the disclosed art does not disclose the transitive two-way trust automatically built between a plurality of domains in a network system providing the transitive resource access between a plurality of first and second network system domains wherein the first and the second system domains are autonomous (administratively independent) from each other, and wherein an account resource or authentication request is resolved by determining from the trust link where to communicate the resource request and communicating the request via the trust link as required by independent claims 1, 32, 51, 60, 65 and 67.

7. The prior art, fails to anticipate or fairly suggest the limitation of applicant's independent claims, in such a manner that a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 102 or 103 would be proper. As a result the claimed invention is considered to be in condition for allowance as being novel and non-obvious over prior art.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on statement of Reasons for Allowance".
